Update to campus events

While there are no recorded cases of the coronavirus at Lynn University or in Boca Raton at this time, the university is taking steps to ensure the safety of our community while continuing education for our students.

As a result, we are postponing mass gatherings and taking safety precautions for small events and group activities. Following is a list of events that will be postponed or modified.

If your event is not listed below and you have questions about how it may be affected, please contact your supervisor, the Center for Student Involvement or your academic adviser.

Postponed university events

Alumni Weekend
Career Fair for Marketing Students
Celebration of Nations
Chibi Kishi Con
Elaine's Musical Treat Gigi and Cast Party
Gold Coast Swing Debate Tournament
Happy 20th Anniversary! A Conservatory Extravaganza
Mock-a-palooza
Veterans Independent Publishing Workshop
WW2 and Holocaust Survivor Presentation

Academic performances and small gatherings

For small-scale events, we are taking safety precautions, including limiting spectators, screening attendees and modifying formats. We will provide additional details soon.

Admission

The Office of Admission will continue to hold events and campus visits with increased visitor screening and modifications to limit size and close interactions.
